

March 23, 2017

Dr. Zheng Jiang, Director and Assistant Professor
Director of Department of Physiotherapy
College of Rehabilitation Medicine
Fujian University of Traditional Chinese Medicine (FUTCM)
1# Qiuyang Road, Min Hou Shang Jie
Fuzhou, Fujian 350122, P.R. China

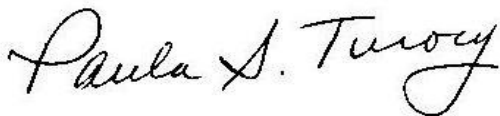

Dear Dr. Jiang,

It is my pleasure to officially invite you to the John G. Rangos, Sr. School of Health Sciences (RSHS) at Duquesne University as short-term Visiting Scholar from June 5, 2017 through August 31, 2017. My colleagues and I look forward to your visit. I am confident that we will be able to provide you with a very beneficial experience, and our students and faculty also will gain much from your presence on our campus.

During your visit to Duquesne, we would like to provide you with opportunities to: (1) observe how rehabilitation is provided in the US; (2) expand your education and experience in rehabilitation; (3) observe how US students and the graduate students from China in our International Linkage Program (some of whom were sent by your prestigious university) are educated in the areas of rehabilitation; and (4) explore the opportunity of enhancing the partnership established between the two of our schools to provide rehabilitation education for the students and rehab practitioners in the School of Rehabilitation Medicine and affiliated hospitals of FUTCM. Dr. Yang Chen and I will be your mentors during your scholarly visit to Duquesne.

If you need further assistance in planning your visit, please feel free to contact me at turocyp@duq.edu. I look forward to meeting you in Duquesne!

Sincerely,

Paula Sammarone Turocy, EdD, LAT, ATC
Interim Dean and Associate Professor

Enclosures

cc: File Copy
Office of International Programs

March 23, 2017

Mr. Xuefeng Liu, Head and Lecturer
Department of Occupational Therapy
College of Rehabilitation Medicine
Fujian University of Traditional Chinese Medicine (FUTCM)
1# Qiuyang Road, Min Hou Shang Jie
Fuzhou, Fujian 350122, P.R. China

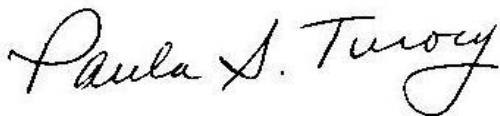

Dear Mr. Liu,

It is my pleasure to officially invite you to the John G. Rangos, Sr. School of Health Sciences (RSHS) at Duquesne University as short-term Visiting Scholar from June 5, 2017 through August 31, 2017. My colleagues and I look forward to your visit. I am confident that we will be able to provide you with a very beneficial experience, and our students and faculty also will gain much from your presence on our campus.

During your visit to Duquesne, we would like to provide you with opportunities to: (1) observe how rehabilitation is provided in the US; (2) expand your education and experience in rehabilitation; (3) observe how US students and the graduate students from China in our International Linkage Program (some of whom were sent by your prestigious university) are educated in the areas of rehabilitation; and (4) explore the opportunity of enhancing the partnership established between the two of our schools to provide rehabilitation education for the students and rehab practitioners in the School of Rehabilitation Medicine and affiliated hospitals of FUTCM. Dr. Yang Chen and I will be your mentors during your scholarly visit to Duquesne.

If you need further assistance in planning your visit, please feel free to contact me at turocyp@duq.edu. I look forward to meeting you in Duquesne!

Sincerely,

Paula Sammarone Turocy, EdD, LAT, ATC
Interim Dean and Associate Professor

Enclosures

cc: File Copy
Office of International Programs

March 23, 2017

Dr. Shaoqing Chen, Lecturer
College of Rehabilitation Medicine
Fujian University of Traditional Chinese Medicine (FUTCM)
1# Qiuyang Road, Min Hou Shang Jie
Fuzhou, Fujian 350122, P.R. China

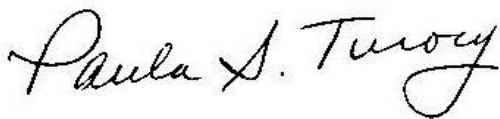

Dear Dr. Chen,

It is my pleasure to officially invite you to the John G. Rangos, Sr. School of Health Sciences (RSHS) at Duquesne University as short-term Visiting Scholar from June 5, 2017 through August 31, 2017. My colleagues and I look forward to your visit. I am confident that we will be able to provide you with a very beneficial experience, and our students and faculty also will gain much from your presence on our campus.

During your visit to Duquesne, we would like to provide you with opportunities to: (1) observe how rehabilitation is provided in the US; (2) expand your education and experience in rehabilitation; (3) observe how US students and the graduate students from China in our International Linkage Program (some of whom were sent by your prestigious university) are educated in the areas of rehabilitation; and (4) explore the opportunity of enhancing the partnership established between the two of our schools to provide rehabilitation education for the students and rehab practitioners in the School of Rehabilitation Medicine and affiliated hospitals of FUTCM. Dr. Yang Chen and I will be your mentors during your scholarly visit to Duquesne.

If you need further assistance in planning your visit, please feel free to contact me at turocyp@duq.edu. I look forward to meeting you in Duquesne!

Sincerely,

Paula Sammarone Turocy, EdD, LAT, ATC
Interim Dean and Associate Professor

Enclosures

cc: File Copy
Office of International Programs

March 23, 2017

Ms. Jia Luo, Assistant Lecturer
Department of Physiotherapy
College of Rehabilitation Medicine
Fujian University of Traditional Chinese Medicine (FUTCM)
1# Qiuyang Road, Min Hou Shang Jie
Fuzhou, Fujian 350122, P.R. China

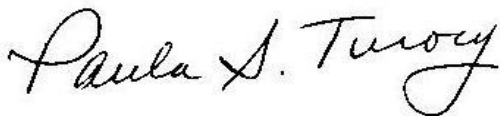

Dear Ms. Luo,

It is my pleasure to officially invite you to the John G. Rangos, Sr. School of Health Sciences (RSHS) at Duquesne University as short-term Visiting Scholar from June 5, 2017 through August 31, 2017. My colleagues and I look forward to your visit. I am confident that we will be able to provide you with a very beneficial experience, and our students and faculty also will gain much from your presence on our campus.

During your visit to Duquesne, we would like to provide you with opportunities to: (1) observe how rehabilitation is provided in the US; (2) expand your education and experience in rehabilitation; (3) observe how US students and the graduate students from China in our International Linkage Program (some of whom were sent by your prestigious university) are educated in the areas of rehabilitation; and (4) explore the opportunity of enhancing the partnership established between the two of our schools to provide rehabilitation education for the students and rehab practitioners in the School of Rehabilitation Medicine and affiliated hospitals of FUTCM. Dr. Yang Chen and I will be your mentors during your scholarly visit to Duquesne.

If you need further assistance in planning your visit, please feel free to contact me at turocyp@duq.edu. I look forward to meeting you in Duquesne!

Sincerely,

Paula Sammarone Turocy, EdD, LAT, ATC
Interim Dean and Associate Professor

Enclosures

cc: File Copy
Office of International Programs